“ Linda Graham- Jimmy Willey was a kind person, a good friend, husband, neighbor, Dad & granddad. He had such a big heart & showed his emotions easily. He only had kind words to say about people no matter how good or bad they treated him & was always respectful to all. In the twenty two years I've know Jimmy, there has never been a cross word between us & I am sad he is gone. He will be missed by many.

“ My Dad had such a kind soul and easy-going way of life. I always loved sitting out on the porch with him and listening to the good music from the 70s and 80s. Rock. Power ballads. Guitar solos. I know all of these because of his awesome taste in music. “Faithfully” and “Wheels in the sky” by Journey and John Mellencamp songs always make me think of him. He was always a good sport when I would visit as a young kid and play dress up (even letting me put wigs on him) and teaching me how to dive into a pool. I have nothing but good memories with my father, and I am happy that he can rest easy and no longer be in any pain or suffering.
I love you Dad.
