Lois worked in the community as a bookkeeper and office administrator for many local businesses – many of which are no longer operating.

Lois was a member of the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection, Cocoa Beach FL, where she faithfully attended services and served by donating her time – teaching Sunday School, part time Church secretary, crocheting shawls and counting.

Lois had a wit about her that everyone loved, you knew where you stood with her – as she did not “sugar coat” anything. She was loved and will be missed.

“ My fondest memories of Lois will always include how she 'held court' during family gatherings at Thanksgiving and Christmas. Always in contention was the question of whether her daughter Debbie's cheesecake was up to her standards, as the family recipe had since been officially transferred. She had a wry sense of humor, a devious smile, an always perfect hairdo but most of all, a loving heart that made me feel part of the family. My sincere condolences to the entire Rescott family.

“ My sympathies and prayers go out Lois's family. I have many great memories of Lois. She had the best sense of humor, a quick wit and that special little grin. She was always fun to be around. She became a quick friend, who gave great advice and who you could take into your confidence. One of my favorite Thanksgiving and Christmas treats was being invited to Debra's house for the family dinner. Lois and I had so much fun teasing everyone, visiting and enjoying the great meal. I will miss her dearly. She was and forever will be "My Favorite. Rescott".

“ Lois was a great individual! I had the pleasure of working with her for many years at a local Bank. She was like a second grandmother to me! I'm glad I got to see her recently and we were able to share a milkshake together and just chat! She will be greatly missed.

“ Her son David and I have been friends along time. He introduced her to me and we hit it off pretty good. I use sail with David and she would tell me to make sure I brought him home safe. I really liked her alot and she was a straight shooter kinda person. I wish her well in the hands of our Lord and Savior.

“ I have known Lois along time but when I really got to know her is when I was her CNA after she broke her leg. She was always my last patient for the day. Once we took care of all her needs we would sit a chat for about an hour. I went there three times a week and we would do this every time. We solved all problems. Would talk about Clyde who was a long time choir member with me. Had great laughs and even a few tears. Hated that she was home bound with that leg but grateful I was given that precious time one on one with her. Have the best eternal life now. You are back with Clyde and with your God
