“ From kids, to adults. You shattered my heart with this. So many years of history. So many memories. I never expected things to be this way. Your energy and smile could always turn any ones mood around. I appreciate you, for showing me what it feels like to be genuinely loved, as a friend and beyond. I'll miss you. See you in heaven sweet boy ☐💕

“ AJ you are one of those students that took place a place in my heart and never left. You are an example of the teacher saying “Once my kid always my kid”. I remember your first weeks at Enterprise. The most memorable thing was your smile. When I pulled you to read, you smiled through the entire lesson. You were a joy to be around. I immensely enjoy seeing the pictures of your handsome young boys who inherited that beautiful bright smile. I pray for peace and strength for your family and ask Jesus to wrap you into his heavenly arms. Love you AJ, Mrs Christy

“ Aj was the first real friend I ever bet had. I had a lot of “firsts” with him. I remember the first day I ever met him we stayed outside past dark time hunting for frogs. Here recently we kept making plans to do stuff and they just never happened. It was a privilege to have ever known AJ. RIP buddy!

“ 7 years wasn't nearly enough. I'm so thankful for each and every second I got to spend with you. Thank you for giving the two most precious boys. You're such an amazing father. We miss you so much. Everyday it gets harder knowing I'll never feel your touch again. I'm so proud of you for being such a strong man for so long. You always put everyone else's happiness before yours. Always wanted the best for everyone. I hope you're no longer in pain. I know you're up there causing a scene! I cannot wait for the day I get to hold you tight and see that sweet smile of yours again. I have so many memories it would be hard to share just one. I promise to remind your boys every single day of how much you love them & how much of a badass their dad was! Thank you for loving me endlessly. You will ALWAYS have the biggest spot in my heart. I'll love you forever💕

See you soon puddin, hold a spot for me up in heaven😊🙏

“ I love you A.J. We had a lot of memories together as kids and adults, it's so hard to choose. I hope you're up there rasin hell and catching hogs and watching over all the ones that love and care about you. I remember taking your little s10 out to the woods and doing doughnuts and stuff, the one day we spent the whole day together for aunt dawn's birthday, the times you and Brandon and I went fishing. You're 23rd birthday party I had for you at the house. There won't be a day I won't think about you or miss you. I love you.
