“ Bryan was the first love of my life and I'll always cherish those moments. I know he will be a beautiful and loving soul in heaven and he left the world sooner than expected! God bless his family and friends! I wish I could of helped make a difference in his life during his struggles. Family means everything and I hope you all are grieving peacefully! <3

“ Bryan struggled for most of his life in many ways. Sometimes he would pray about something and then call me to say God had answered his prayer. I think if Bryan could tell us anything now, he would want us to know how much God loves us and that we are not alone. I hope we all remember his smile and his laughter, and how he touched all of our lives in very special ways.

“ My heart is broken by this loss. I know Bryan will forever live on in so many beautiful memories. I know I have quite a few that will always bring a smile to my face. I can't even believe this is happening. Prayers for comfort and peace for the family and all that knew and loved him during this difficult time. 🙏 I know he will always be watching over his love and their handsome boys.

Bryan, you were my little buddy back in the day. You were always looking for mischief on my watch and smiling so big while you did. I am forever grateful to have been a small part of your world while you were growing up. I love you, kiddo, and will miss you! 💙
