

Ms. Carol M. Cadagan

June 15, 1943 - January 4, 2020

Carol Marion Cadagan born in Boston to the parents of Joseph and Marion Cadagan. She grew up in the Field's Corner neighborhood of Dorchester. Carol's father died when she was just thirteen. Carol started her career in retail at Kresge's in Boston, considered one of largest retail chains of the 20th century. Carol had great work ethics. Her first big purchase was a car. She loved taking her mother and brother, Joey for Sunday drives. As the family began to grow Carol enjoyed taking her nieces and nephew to Paragon Park Amusement Park. At Christmas time Carol's trunk was filled with toys for all the children. She was like Santa in disguise to all those she loved.

Carol moved to Florida over twenty years ago. She was employed at Publix Super Market and it was there she met her forever friend Peggy Winters. They were inseparable. Carol was very close to Peggy's family She enjoyed time with them and loved taking trips to Disney World.

The last two years of Carol's life were spent at Viera Rehab in Melbourne Florida where she received remarkable care. Health First Hospice was called in to help Carol's pass peacefully into God's hands. To the caring conscientious staff a sincere sense of gratitude from of all Carol's family and friends.

Carol is predeceased by her father, Joseph E. Cadagan, mother Marion Cadagan, sister, Marie F. Sweeney of Holliston, Eileen Burke of Charlestown, brother, Joseph Cadagan of Boston. She leaves behind her nieces, Susan Sweeney Fitzgerald of Cape Cod, Jacqueline Coolidge of Holliston, Christine Whitlock of North Andover, Lori Jean Hooley of North Andover, James Burke of Bedford N.H., Sharon Dell'Aano of Somerville, MA. Carol was a loving Great Aunt to Joseph Fitzgerald, Julia Coolidge, Nolan, Morgan and Sara Whitlock, Kyle, Cadagan and Cameron Hooley, Connor and Ryan Burke and Sophia Dell'Anno. Carol also leaves behind her friends including the Winters Family.

Carol was a blessing of unconditional love and joy to her family and friends.
