“ Carol used to tell me that her parents had to tie a pork chop around her neck to get kids to play with her. lol What a lie! She was an instant success at Hacienda del Rio. Always laughing and making jokes. She will be missed everywhere, but especially at the bark park by people and pooches who gather there.... And me.

“ May the road rise up to meet her
May the wind be always at her back
May the sun shine warm upon her face; The rains fall soft upon her fields
And until you meet again (and you will)
May God hold her in the palm of His hand 🍀 🙏 ❤️

“ I only met Carol once or twice in person through John Rausch over the years. But her vibrant personality has stuck with me. I always looked forward to her supportive comments on my Facebook posts - like a long distance friend I've known for years.
