

Mr. Charlie Lee Henderson Sr.

June 1, 1940 - November 16, 2025

With heavy hearts, the Henderson family invites friends, loved ones, and community members to join us in celebrating and honoring the life of Charlie Lee Henderson Sr., who passed away peacefully on November 16, 2025.

Charlie was born on June 1, 1940, in Polk County, North Carolina, the beloved son of Gaston Henderson and Etoria Campbell. A proud and hardworking man, he devoted much of his life to his trade as a Captain/Union Dredge Boat Operator. Charlie lived in Christmas, FL for over 50 years, where he built strong connections and lasting memories.

He leaves behind his cherished children, Charlie Lee Henderson and Vennis Henderson, and three sisters, as well as loving grandchildren who will forever carry his legacy forward.

We welcome all who knew and loved him to gather as we lay him to rest.

“ Charlie Henderson was married to my sister Barbara Shuman Henderson. Charlie was a hard working man and he loved to fish and camp out on the river he and Barbara and the kids would come to Savannah and stay for awhile they drop off the kids Donna , Charles Lee jr , Jimmy and Vennis for the summer to stay with there grandmother Shuman. Charlie traveled a lot with the dredge and lived different places. He will now be united with his loved ones that no longer with us. He will be missed my condolences to the family.
