Christina Henry - February 06, 2023 at 09:45 AM

Things haven't gotten any easier. I wish this never happened I wish you were still here. I still need you. Our daughter still needs you. We love you. And we miss you so very much.

“ My dear husband, Corey words can not describe the pain I feel knowing you are not here with us anymore. I miss you and love you so incredibly much. Knowing our daughter will not have you in her life breaks my heart. I would do anything to have you back. To hear your laugh and see your smile. I will never be the same without you. Rest In Peace baby.
