

Mr. David "Brent" Carmicle

September 22, 1956 - August 3, 2020

David "Brent" Carmicle came into this world on September 22nd, 1956 and departed on August 3rd, 2020. Brent was born in Danville, Kentucky to Fred and Blanche Carmicle. His family moved to Cocoa, Florida, where he went to grade school and graduated from Cocoa High School in 1974. He married his wife Linda Romprey in 1985 who blessed him with his first child Ashley in 1989 and second child, Corey in 1991. Brent grew to love upholstery just as his own father did, working for shops around the area until he became a shop owner himself of "Carmicle Auto Upholstery." He was well known for his professional work on classic cars throughout the years that entered car shows. From camouflage truck seats to a Luis Vuitton vinyl top on a Cadillac, he was well known for his sewing trade. Brent loved to camp with friends and family to the springs every summer. He became a grandfather "Pa Pa" to his first granddaughter, Audrey Nichole Carmicle in 2012, second granddaughter, Nova Rose Carpenter in 2016 and his only grandson, David Clayton Carpenter in 2018.

A Celebration of Life will be held Friday August 14th at 11am located at First Baptist Church of Port St. John.

“ We are so sorry for the loss of Brent. Although I haven't seen Brent in years, I knew Brent from spending some of my teen years with Ashley at her house with her family. Brent was kind and funny and always spending time his family. Jay knew Brent from doing business with him at his Upholstery shop. Jay says Brent was a great guy and a friend, and he will miss seeing him around. We send our sympathies to Mrs. Linda, Ashley and Corey.

“ Brent Carmicle was a true friend and true to his nature, He tried to be friends with everyone He knew. Brent was like that. He knew the benefits of being there for others, supporting them in their goals and ambitions. Brent enjoyed the simple things in life; hard work, nature, laughter, relaxing and most of all his family. Brent's caring personality went a long way, in making others feel important. Brent's friendship will always be missed. However, the memories of many fun and enjoyable times will be remembered forever. I can remember on many occasions chatting with Brent after work, with no specific topic, as he took the time to listen and share his wisdom with me. Rest in Peace, Brent !!
