

Mr. David K. Jarvis

May 7, 1965 - May 30, 2017

David Keith Jarvis, 52, died Tuesday, May 30, 2017 from injuries sustained in a car accident. Davy was a life-long resident of Titusville and lived in Mims. He is survived by his daughter Amanda Feeney (Shaun Roberts) of Oklahoma; two grandsons TJ and Logan; parents David and Linda Jarvis of Titusville; sister Beckie Lewis of Titusville; niece Danielle Lewis; nephew and Dalton Lewis, and many aunts, uncles, cousins, extended family and friends. He is preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, Keith and Lois Jarvis, and his maternal grandparents, Oval and Margaret Hensley.

Davy was born in Titusville on May 7, 1965. He attended Astronaut High School (c/o 1983) and became a third generation iron-worker. He was a member of Ironworkers Local 808 in Orlando until he suffered a serious injury on the job and became disabled.

Davy enjoyed fishing and the outdoors. He particularly loved to be around the water. He will be remembered for his caring and helpful nature and his sense of humor, was a friend to everyone and he will be missed.

A private memorial service for family will be held this week. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the SPCA in Titusville.
