“ Ed gave me a job with Florida Power and Light, I loved him like a Brother, and his Beautiful Wife Sarah, I will always have many fond memories, with him Fishing, at work, and some Social Outings. He said what he thought, I find that Profound, in a person. Now you Rest.

“ I met Ed and his lovely wife Sarah in 2008 I will always remember Ed's wit and his beautiful prose.
What a sweet man he was.
I am sending my deepest condolence to Sarah and their family

“ Craig and I met Ed and Sarah 9 years ago because of our love for a very special breed of dog - Silken Windhounds. We'd drive over from Orlando to visit them (although not often enough) and my favorite thing to do was to give that sweet & lovable curmudgeon Ed a hard time. I know he enjoyed our banter as much as I did. He and Craig would engage in long conversations about current events and politics, while Sarah and I would talk about our Silkens and gardening. And we'd always enjoy hearing stories about their beloved Greyhounds. We loved Ed's poems...a testament to the warmth and love he had in his heart. You will be missed, dearest Ed. Praying for comfort for Sarah and family.

“ This is a loss of a wonderful man. Besides the closeness with Sarah, he had a deep soulful love for his animals shown in his poetry, his work with rescue and in his eyes every time he looked at them. He will be missed. Rest in Peace Ed.

“ Life will not be the same without Ed....He was a good man and I have happy memories of going to the track to watch their dogs run...He and Sarah were both so devoted to them. He will be missed.

“ I think it would be fair to say that Ed changed the lives of everyone he touched...you were never the same. Our story started as part of the Greyhound Rescue program but I think I was the one that was rescued. Ed and Sara became like family to us. We were constantly surprised by his stories....loved to be in his company...he was loved....admired....looked up to...and will be deeply missed!! We love you Sara!

“ A Southern Gentleman has departed for his just reward. Heaven will never be the same. Ed loved greyhounds and his sweet bride, Sara. They would occasionally visit with us and one day he handed me a box filled with pocket knives given him by FPL and associated contacts. Every time I trim, cut or whittle with one, I think of our conversations, usually related to family or the changing politics and issues confronting the nation he loved and served. Just absorb this: every time you flip your light switch, rest assured Ed Jones had a hand in lighting your life!!
