“ Esther was a special mom to me and loved by Richmond family, far and near. She took many cruises with Dad, and they both boasted of good food and exciting shows. She believed in family, and her blended family. Esther attended numerous reunions and many family affairs. Always exhibiting a sweet disposition, no matter the hours or days involved in preparing for an event. Esther placed God first in her life and spent hours watching Mass, giving to the poor, and praying. When Dad became ill, she gave up many trips and comforts to be with him and ensure his well-being. I will not forget her sacrifice and thoughtfulness.

*I thank God that he afforded me an opportunity to speak to Esther the evening she transitioned. May God provide the peace that passes all understanding to Michelle, Rachel, Jason and Steve

You and mom had such a special bond. She loved you and your brothers and sister. Not many daughters would have continued to make sure their bond continued after their dad passed. You never missed a birthday or Christmas or Mother's Day. Thank you for always being there for her. You're a Amazing person!!!❤️

“ I enjoy memories of when Aunt Esther and I were together, along with several members of my family, at my home in Northern Virginia during the warmer months of 2019. She came for a weeklong visit and I really enjoyed her company! Aunt Esther loved dining out in style and so do I, and every evening we would go to a new dining place to eat. It was great having her companionship during that time and I'm forever grateful to her daughter and my first cousin, Michelle, for making Aunt Esther's trip to spend time with me and my family possible. I'll always cherish special memories like this of my aunt who's dearly loved.

“ I am partial but My Mother had the sweetest most giving spirit I've ever meet. There was nothing she wouldn't give a person in need. If she even thought a family member needed something it was yours before you asked. It was honor to spend the last year's of her life living with me. It wasn't always easy but I wouldn't change a thing. I adore you mom, now and forever. You are now with Grandma, Benji, Daddy and Pop 🥰❤
