“ I remember when I was little when my Grandma Elmore and Dodah would take me to church and we would always sit with Nana and Papa and he would always have Big Red gum and my grandma would have speariment and I would always sing at church... I know your in a better place and will be missed by so many people because just like your sister , my Grandma you were a amazing grandmother and I only hope one day I can be half the parent and grandparent you and my grandma Naomi were. Sorry to the family I know how hard this is... Love you all. Xoxoxoxoxoxo

“ Nana,
Thank you for always treating me like one of your own grandchildren. I feel very blessed to have had you in my life on my wedding day, the births of Sean & Aaron, and everyday life since then. I'll forever have a piece of you as I walk through my house daily. My curio cabinet and cedar hope chest were gifts that I will treasure forever. They will now be heirlooms from you that one day I will pass on to the boys. You may be gone from this Earth but you'll be forever in our hearts!!
Love,
Erica

“ I cherish the memories of Debbie you and I going to lunch, watching dancing with the stars, American idol and all our laughs. Biggest laugh ever was at the woman’s conference when Debbie, Erica and I heard you talking in your slap. I’m laughing and tearing up while thinking of it. Most of all my memory will be how much you put your family first and always before yourself. You were a mom that loved all her children equally. You were the best nana and great nana to your grandchildren. I can only imagine the smile on your face when you saw your husband, Naomi and Dennis and the family who went before you. You are loved forever until we all see each other again.

My deepest sympathy to Debbie , Rusty, Jennifer, and Barbara. May God comfort you and give you strength during this time of grief. Dale you kept your promise to your father in law and took care of his wife in whom He is well pleased. My thoughts are with all the family. We have the blessed assurance in knowing that Ruth Bass is not in our past but in all of our future. Love you all
To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Ruth Bass is walking on the streets of Gold. Glory bound and in God’s presence ❤️🌹❤️

Aunt Ruth, I know you will be missed but looking forward to my journey where I will see all my loving family again! God Bless all your Cocoa & Florida family! You have sweet kids & grandkids that will always cherish the many laughs they had with you and the memories. Aunt Ruth wish I would have been in Florida to give you a hug before your journey. Love, Lanier & Susan and the kids.
