“ I met Charles at Frontenac Baptist when I was in my pre-teens. We went to the same church, he did my hair for years, we danced alot over the years. He will be missed. He never gave up in the worst of times. His attitude in all he did was inspiring. Love you.

“ Many memories my friend, from high school to Nashville when you auditioned for “You Can Be a Star”. No doubt you are singing and dancing once again. Rest in peace and comfort in the arms of our Lord and Savior.
