“ When I first met Wayne, he was working as a car salesman. He was a funny and cool guy who--according to him--had overcome a lot of things in life prior to coming to Jacksonville, FL. He had helped me clear my land of trees and from there we grew to become friends. I lost touch with Wayne shortly after his divorce from a woman name Shawn. The last time I saw Wayne, he was in a custody battle and shortly after, he left unexpectedly from Jacksonville and we lost connection until I searched the internet for him and found him in Brevard County. I send my condolences to all who loved Wayne--miss my friend. All I want to know is, what happened to Wayne to cause his passing?
