

Mr. Jack Wilgus

November 27, 1930 - June 19, 2018

John “Jack” Joseph Wilgus, Jr. was born on November 27, 1930 in Elizabeth, NJ. He is survived by his wife, Anna; son, Johnny and wife Bonnie; daughter, Mary Anna and husband Gary ; grandchildren, Kristina and husband Jason, Dustin, and Bengy; and great grandchildren; Julius and Elon. He served in the US Air Force during the Korean War from 1951-1955. During this time, he was stationed in Kastel, Germany and met the love of his life, Anna. After his service, Jack came back to the states with Anna and they started their family. Jack worked with Elizabeth Town Gas then their family moved to Florida. He later retired from Purolator. In his retirement, Jack and Anna owned a nursery and enjoyed working out in the yard. Together they enjoyed trips to Europe to see family, traveled throughout the US, car rides on the weekends, having get togethers at their house, and hosted many visitors. Jack touched the lives of many others and throughout the years countless memories were made that we’ll hold onto forever. Rest in peace Jack Wilgus. You will never be forgotten. With love, your family.

In lieu of flowers, donations to Hospice of St. Francis of Titusville would be appreciated.
