“ I was a young sailor on the USNS Vanguard and Jim gave me inspiration and gave me nothing but inspiration and knowledge not the job but how to be. He is the nicest man I have ever met and his patience for a young firecracker like me was inspirational.

“ I sailed with Jim on the USNS Vanguard back in the mid 80's, and he was one of the nicest people I had ever met. At the time, I had just hired on with Rockwell fresh out of college and was periodically taking trips on the ship. He couldn't have been more welcoming, and I so enjoyed the time I spent with him. He led a group of individuals that as far I was concerned were in a class by themselves. Later in my life, his example guided me in what it meant to be a true mentor. He will be missed. Mike Lynch
