“ I spent many hours with Jimmy during his last days here on earth, taking care of him during his illness. I found him to be a strong man even though he may have felt and looked weak. I had a few conversations with him which revealed he loved his sons and was proud of them. He had a sense of humor which we all see in Andy his son, my dear friend whom my family loves dearly. Peace to you Jimmy and your family. I was happy to take care of you and admire the way Andy took care of you during your last years here in Titusville. He is an amazing human being which we will always keep an eye on for you while you are watching over him from above ;)
