

Mrs. Joan Gorneault

April 24, 1933 - January 18, 2018

Joan Arlene Gorneault, 84, passed away on January 18, 2018. She was born in Frenchville, Maine on April 24, 1933, daughter of the late Edwin and Yvonne (Chamberland) Ouellette. She was the widow of Herbert J. Gorneault. November 6, 2017 would have been their 66th wedding anniversary.

Joan will be remembered for her spirit, her laughter, her faith in life and her love of her family and friends. She supported Herb as secretary/bookkeeper for his concrete construction business, took in family members that needed a temporary place to stay and created countless cakes for every occasion from births to weddings. To this day, many brides and grooms still talk about her cakes.

She is survived by her loving children: Caroline & Richard Madore of East Windsor, CT, Gerald & Linda Gorneault of Boca Raton, FL, Carlene Gorneault of Cocoa, FL, Judy Mayer of Melbourne, FL and Janice Ouellette of Durham, CT; eight treasured grandchildren: Jacqueline Corricelli, Gregory Madore, Peter Gorneault, Laurie Levenstein, Amy Staskelunas, Amanda Gulino, Chelsea & Eric Murphy; and four great-grandchildren: Kendra Madej, Genevieve Corricelli, Joseph Madore and Mia Levenstein. She was also survived by three sisters: Marie Rose (Raoul) Sirois, Claudette (Frank) Chasse and Judy Voisine, all of CT; sisters-in-law: Irma Ouellette of Van Buren, ME, Hazel Raymond of FL and Anne Marie Ouellette of Frenchville,

ME, and many nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents and husband, she was predeceased by her brothers: Doland, Rosaire, Joel, Bertrand and Valier (Pit), one sister: Doris Beaulieu, her grandson: Edward P. Staskelunas IV, brothers-in-law: Origene Beaulieu and Clayton Voisine, and sister-in-law: Yvette (Landry) Ouellette.
