

Mr. John Charles Noles

March 27, 1958 - October 4, 2016

John Charles Noles 58, passed away October 4, 2016 at home, surrounded by his family, wife Karen, daughter Chelsae, son Gabriel, stepson Jarred and close friends.

Chuck was constantly reinventing himself. He spent the last 10-years as a Police Officer with the City of Melbourne. Prior to that he published a weekly newspaper and was a Master Baker, owning his own bakery.

Chuck loved being out on the water in his beloved sailboat Peddler, working on restoring and maintaining his 50-year old Mustang and taking his four footed son, Chance, on outings.

Chuck will be missed by his colleagues, sailing buddies, many friends and devoted family.

Services will be held Monday, October 17th at Calvary Chapel West Melbourne at 11AM.

Tribute Wall

“ Mr. John Charles Noles

January 30, 2023 at 03:36 AM

“ I was saddened to learn of Chuck's passing, and I want to thank Vicki Barnes for letting me know over the weekend. I had not seen Chuck for many years but I have fond memories of the many laughs we had when we toiled together on the Oviedo Voice in the 1990s.
Steve Combs

Stephen Combs - October 17, 2016 at 09:20 AM