“ This memorial is written to my cousin Johnny who was more than just a cousin, I always considered him my big brother. I got all of his "hand me downs", of course they were the coolest. We grew up together, watching Saturday cartoons, working for his dad in construction, moving to Virginia and sharing my apartment. I introduced him to his first wife, then off to Florida he went. The distance was great but the friendship never waned. John knew how to have fun and make people laugh. His love for family, friends, and Pittsburgh were undeniable. Through this battle with brain cancer, I admired him for his strength and ability to keep his faith, love, hope, and humor, so strong right to the bitter end.

Ron Tranmer wrote a poem that does a great job of summing up my last words to John. The poem is called "The Broken Chain"

We little knew the day that

God was going to call your name.

In life we loved you dearly,

In death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you

But you didn't go alone.

For part of us went with you

The day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories.

Your love is still our guide,

And though we cannot see you

You are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same,

but as God calls us one by one

the chain will link again.

John/Johnny/Herb/Herbert/JP (his nic names), we will be linked again in heaven, see you soon my brother.

“ Please accept my deepest condolences on John's passing. He enjoyed life to the fullest. Although I did not know Barbara and John all that well, they sometimes joined Troy and Ruth Orr and myself for dinner at Durango's restaurant. I think of John as the "olive man" because whenever I enjoyed a martini, he would wait patiently, or not so patiently, for my olives. I told him we had to give them time to marinate in the vodka a bit to make them "yummy" and then he could have them. Again my heartfelt sympathy to the entire family.

“ I have fond memories of playing poker in the little back room at Johns house back in 1990. That's where he gave me the nickname 5 card snew (what's snew with you)! I had the pleasure of working with him for 20 years and glad we remained friends even after. I will miss him.

“ Hi there! I had been my extra great pleasure and privilege to get to know and serve with John at Indian River City Church @ Titusville over the last 7 years as his friend and pastor! He regularly helped bring the weekly lesson to life through his amazing musical abilities! He used his time and talents to serve God's purpose! I am a better person and pastor because of him! Thanks a lot John!
