There's never another love like your first love...
I'm sorry I made the wrong decision all those years ago, hon. It breaks my heart.

“ John and I had met when he requested my help with Fire Department Honor Guard work. He was wanting to learn and be able to perform funeral details for brother and sister firefighters. His dedication to that service was incredible, when many firefighters couldn't! I will remember him for that, but will remember him even more for asking me for my expertise!! RIP in peace brother! 🙏🙏🙏🥲
