

Mrs. Judy Crutchfield

August 24, 1932 - July 12, 2024

Judy Elaine Crutchfield of Cocoa, Florida passed quietly in her home, July 12, 2024. Judy was born Aug. 24, 1932 in Crystal River, Fl. to Hiram and Sylvia Martin. Both Hiram and Sylvia died when Judy was young and she spent some months in an orphanage until she was adopted by Jewel and Louis Scharick. Judy graduated from Bay County High School in Panama City, Fl. and she was married to James H. Crutchfield in June, 1951. As a wife and homemaker, Judy lovingly raised six children as she and Jim traveled over the country. Surviving Judy are her six children; Dr. James Jr. (Sandy) of Longwood, FL, Jack (Debbie) of Lynn Haven, FL, Jamie Mills (Robin) of Florence, OR, Jefferson of Orlando, FL, Dr. Jerry (Martha) of Mustang OK and Julie Brawner (Anthony) of Hutchinson, KS; nine grandchildren, Melia Patton-Syfrett, Christine Powers (Christopher), Rebecca Grimaldi (Michael), Sunny Tucker, Jennifer Stone (Brandon), Bethany Castillo (Rene), Tommy Hilbern, Danielle Abitz (Austin), Johnathan Crutchfield, and 17 great grandchildren; twins Micah and Matthew, Mason and Morgan Grimaldi, C.J. Tucker, Katie and Maddie Castillo, William and JJ Stone, Ashlynn Doyle. Nicole Thiry, Mikayla and Michael Jones, Da'Miya and George Chandler and Blake and Cassidy Abitz.

She is preceded in death by her devoted husband, Jim, of 68 years, her parents, sisters and brothers including Robert, Barbara "Loise" Addison, Delona and Sheldon, granddaughter Angela, grandson Christopher, and grand baby Dana.

Services will be held July 31st at 11:30 a.m. at the Cape Canaveral National Cemetery in Mims.

In lieu of flowers, the family is requesting a donation to Boys Town, <https://www.boystown.org>.

“ *Melia,
Thinking of you and the whole family. I always loved to sit and chat with both your grandma and your grandpa. They loved you all so much you could tell instantly from the way they talked about you. Prayers of comfort and peace.
