“ I have so many wonderful memories of working with Judy at Fairglen and she always made everything beyond special. Judy was kind, caring, and loved bringing us together. Everyone loved her and she positively influenced our lives. Much love and care to all of Judy's family and friends as we all will miss her so much!

“ I met Judy in the early 80's when I started working at Fairglen Elementary. She was the sweetest and most kindest Lady you could ever meet. I fell in love with her right away. Then my husband meet hers and it was instant friendship for us. Judy you will be missed by so many. Love you. Give my hubby a hug. You hold a special place in my heart. 💕💕💕 Debbie Back

“ I met Judy when I first taught at Fairglen Elementary. She was a shining light in the front office and helped to make our faculty the “Fairglen Family” . She was responsible and excellent at her job and kept us organized while at the same time bringing laughter and joy to all she interfaced with. Judy will always hold a special place in my heart.
