

Linda Carol McCartney

June 20, 1951 - January 12, 2026

Linda Carol McCartney (Hull), born June 20, 1951, passed away peacefully on January 12, 2026, in Cocoa, Florida. Born in Miami, Linda spent most of her life in Cocoa, the community she called home and faithfully served. She dedicated her career to education, teaching Pre-K, Kindergarten, and children with special needs. A patient, loving educator, and passionate advocate for children, Linda inspired colleagues, families, and students alike. Teaching was not just her profession; it was her calling.

Linda was the beloved daughter of the late Lawrence and Mary Hull and the youngest of four siblings. She was preceded in death by her brothers, Norman Hull and Robert Hull, and her nephew, Rick Hull. She is survived by her sister, Sharon Doherty, and was also a loving aunt to many nieces and nephews.

She was the devoted wife of Edward McCartney, Jr., who preceded her in death in 2012. Together, they built a life rooted in love, family, and devotion. Linda was a proud and loving mother to her three children: Candace McCartney Fuller (Jonathan Fuller), Christopher McCartney (Amanda McCartney), and Emily Hilbert (Nicholas Hilbert). She was a devoted grandmother to six grandchildren: Hailey, Jay, Rain, Braxton, Nathan, and Christopher.

Linda had a deep love for animals and cherished her cats, Winston and Snickers, and her dog, Ellie, who brought her comfort and companionship. Horses also held a special place in her heart throughout her life. Even when she could no longer ride, her love for them never faded. She often shared that she missed "the smell of horsehair," a simple reflection of the joy and peace they brought her.

A gentle soul and a friend to many, Linda's kindness left a lasting impression on all who knew her. Her legacy lives on through the countless children she taught, the family she loved fiercely, and the many lives she touched with compassion and dedication. She will be deeply missed and forever remembered.

"He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away." - Revelation 21:4
