

Mr. Lynn Vogel SR.

April 24, 1928 - December 27, 2016

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

“ Mr. Lynn Vogel SR.

January 30, 2023 at 03:36 AM

“ Donna Zumhingst lit a candle in memory of Mr. Lynn Vogel SR.

Donna Zumhingst - March 24, 2017 at 06:04 PM

“ Ed and my dad Ron were childhood friends. Ed grew up in Seymour, IN and moved to Florida 53 yrs ago due to health reasons. He opened a gas station and ran it for many years. He was married to Louise Vogel and had 2 sons, Brian and Lenny. Ed loved having fun and spending time with his family. He loved Florida. He was a genuinely kind and caring person. When we were kids he loved sitting by his pool. I just found out about his passing and contacted my 4 brothers and my sister. We are deeply saddened by his loss. We are all sending hugs to Brian and Lenny for their loss.

Donna Zumhingst - March 24, 2017 at 05:57 PM

Rob
Kidster

“ Ed was a very dear friend of mine over the last couple of years. He would often stop by and get a bit of exercise or just want to chat about sports, the navy, his family or whatever was on his mind that day. A genuinely kind person he would always do whatever you asked of him without hesitation and to the best of his ability. Always quick to joke and laugh he made my time at work much more enjoyable and rewarding. There aren't that many sincerely good people in this world but Ed was one of them. He will be sorely missed but if a heaven exists I am 100% certain that he is there now. Go Notre Dame! Love ya Ed.

Rob Kidster - January 04, 2017 at 04:23 PM

DZ

Ed was one my father's best friends. He grew up in Seymour, IN and was married to Louise Vogel. He had 2 sons, Brian and Lenny. Ed was a genuinely kind person who loved his family. He always made us smile. I just notified my brothers and sisters about his passing. We are deeply saddened to hear of his loss. We send hugs to Brian and Lenny.

Donna Zumhingst - March 24, 2017 at 05:38 PM