Marie I. Wheeler Obituary

Our dear mother Marie I. Wheeler of Cocoa, Florida, sadly passed away unexpectedly on September 14, 2023 at the age of 82. Marie was born in Newport, Vermont and lived there with her late husband John until they decided to retire in Florida.

Marie is survived by her brother, Roger Marcotte and his wife Marlene, her 3 children: John W. Wheeler Jr. and his wife Eileen of Coventry, Vermont, Darcy L. Wiesen of Columbia, South Carolina, Shirley Whitney and her husband Roger of Magnolia, Delaware. Her sister-in-law Anna and Hank Fritschka of New Jersey, Rodney and Diana Champagne, and the following grandchildren Jonathan Wheeler, Joshua and his wife Mikalah Wiesen, Nicole and her husband Joe Hannan, Matthew Wiesen, Bradley Whitney, and Chelsea Whitney, her great grandchildren Hayden, Aubrie, Carter, Paisley, Ashlyn, Reagan, and Walker and several nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her husband John, her parents Lucian and Rose Marcotte, and her brother Donald Marcotte.

Marie took an early retirement from the State of Vermont and soon found herself enjoying retirement in Florida. While living in Florida she worked at Harvey's Grove where loved conversing with the customers, especially those from Vermont. She also enjoyed going on cruises, traveling to South Carolina, Delaware, New Jersey and Vermont to see her family and friends. Marie deeply loved spending time with her family, especially the grandchildren and great grandchildren. When she wasn't with family she enjoyed gardening, volunteering at Blessed Sacrament and dining out with her neighbor Judy.

Service will be held at the Cape Carnival Veterans Cemetery on October 12 @ 10:30 a.m. in lane C. Immediately following the service a luncheon will be held at 161 Vanguard Circle in Cocoa.

In lieu of flowers donations to the SPCA of Brevard can be made in Marie's name.
