“ Jay and I were lucky to have had Pattie in our life. We will cherish our memories in Florida forever. Since she met Jay she treated him as one of her own. We shared so many laughs together, from going to Old Town, driving around in her red convertible bug, to a simple movie trip that your side hurts for days from laughing so hard. She was a loving, caring, generous person who will be missed dearly.

*Sending our love to you all,
Jay and Nicole Noel*

“ Patty and Doc were mine and my late husband's friends for life. And after we both lost our men we remained friends even tho we were miles apart, along with her children and grandchildren, especially Ronnda. She was a generous and giving soul. And I'm so happy I stopped in and spent the day and night with her and Ronnda when I visited Florida 2 years ago, not knowing it would be the last time seeing my friend. You're in good company mama, rest well
