

Mrs. Patricia Homan Hagen Jordan

May 15, 1928 - September 21, 2016

Patricia May Homan was born in Hartford, Connecticut May 15, 1928. She was raised in Coconut Grove, Florida from the age of 3 and lived in the Miami area for much of her life. She attended Barry College and University of Miami and received her bachelor's degree from Rollins College. Pat was a substitute school teacher for the Dade County (Miami) school district where her children attended school. She was later a volunteer in the Brevard area at the Women's Center and she helped found a safe house for abused women. She was a crisis line volunteer and served as a Guardian ad Litem. She enjoyed quilting and spending summers in Fort Collins and Salida, Colorado.

She was married to William A. Hagen (deceased) and John A. Jordan (deceased). She leaves four children: William August Hagen, Mary Hagen Roberts, Joanne Hagen Kusa, Thomas Wayne Hagen, and step-daughter Barbara Jordan Conner. She was beloved by eight grandchildren and a great-granddaughter.

A memorial service will be held at a later time. Private interment is at Caballero Rivero Woodlawn South Cemetery in Miami.

Tribute Wall

“ Mrs. Patricia Homan Hagen Jordan

January 30, 2023 at 03:36 AM