“ Heartbroken. After trying to call without luck I found this and words can't express how I feel. Dick taught me golf and we spent many hours between NJ, Myrtle Beach and Florida on the greens. He will be forever in my heart.

“ I feel honored that I got to know Richard in this life and spent long hours talking with him about many things. My favorite memories include our talks about heaven and things to come. Richard put his faith in Jesus a long time ago, and although he was a hard man, he knew the grace of God, and now has realized that grace in full measure. I never had the experience of a proper father before, and for a short time he was just that to me. We had laughter and arguments that I will cherish always. His legacy lives on through his children and grandchildren. You all are forever in my heart and always in my prayers~Lori Cunningham
