

Mr. Rick Myers

November 8, 1982 - March 31, 2020

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

“ Mr. Rick Myers

January 30, 2023 at 03:36 AM

“ Ricky was always the one to admit his wrongs and try to get better. He always wanted to make people know how much he loved them, always. He sent photos to keep everyone updated, he loved his tattoos and family was first. Ricky was a wild child and I miss him every day. I love you so much Ricky, so much. ❤️

angel johnston - April 18, 2020 at 02:40 AM

*Ricky had a huge heart and would give the shirt off his back to help someone literally. No place to go? He took you in. No food. He would feed you.
He always made me feel loved and appreciated. Always made a point to tell me both.
Lol he had everyone at my work thinking we had a Jerry Springer family: he told my co-workers he was my brother. They knew he was my son in laws uncle so kind of confused them lol. But he definitely treated me like a sister. Even did the overprotective don't screw over my sister thing a few times!
He may have had his demons he could not fight but that wasn't him inside
Love and miss you always. See you on the flip side*

Patti - April 18, 2020 at 08:18 AM