Ruth Ann Bauersfeld Blue was born December 17, 1929 in Yates Center, Kansas. She grew up in Lawrence, Kansas and attained her Bachelor of Education at Pittsburg State University in Pittsburg, Kansas and was a member of the Alpha Xi Delta Sorority. She taught first grade in Denver, Colorado. Ruth wanted to travel and became a Stewardess with United Airlines. She met Carson A. Blue Jr. on a blind date in Denver, Colorado. They were married June 12, 1955 in Wake, North Carolina.

Ruth was a loving wife and mother of three daughters. She enjoyed spending time with family including water skiing, tennis, and family vacations. Ruth closely followed her daughters' school and sports activities. She was always active in her church, Women's club and her college sorority.

After raising three daughters, she accomplished her life passion of owning a gift shop named the Olde Towne Potpourri in Orange City where she created dried flower arrangements with her daughter Jill. She traveled to merchandise shows across the country buying unique and exquisite gifts.

Grateful for having shared her life are her husband Carson "Al" Blue of Orange City, two daughters Jorjann (Blue) Blake of Sioux Falls, SD and Jill Blue of Melbourne, and grandchildren Britton Blake, Alison Blake and Carson E. Blue. Ruth is preceded in death by her parents Fred and Ruth C. Bauersfeld, brother Harry Bauersfeld, sisters Jo Corbett, Margaret Kervin, and Cathrine Lygrisse, and daughter Jami Blue.

In lieu of flowers the family encourages a memorial to the First Presbyterian Church in Deland for missions outreach.
