“ Sined was my closest friend in Hoover junior high. We got to surf together and hangout quite a bit. He went on to satellite high and I went to Mel high and we lost some contact but in our 20s I would see him around town and it's like we never lost time from the last time we spoke. I really happy to have seen him on a trip back home w few years back and stay connected on social media. He had a biting sense of humor and he was fun to be around. Condolences to his family and friends.
