

Mr. Vincent L. Cimino

May 2, 1923 - December 19, 2016

Vincent and his family lived in Danbury, Connecticut until they moved to Florida in 1978. He was predeceased by his son, Wayne D. Cimino. He is survived by his wife of 64 years, Ann I. Cimino, daughter and son-in-law Debra and Jim Melvin, four granddaughters and many great grandsons, granddaughters and great-great granddaughters, numerous nieces and nephews.

Vincent was a decorated WWII Veteran, receiving the Croix de Guerre AVEC Palm Order 1286 Prov Govt of France for his service to the French People.

Vincent was loved by many people, and a Grandpa to all children who knew him. He was known in the Port St. John Community and Sheriff's Department for holding up traffic on his electric scooter trying to cross Fay Blvd at Arabella Lane. Thanks to all who brought him home when he would lose his way.

A memorial service will be held at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witness December 30, 7:00 P. M. on Curtis Blvd at Falcon in Port St. John, Florida. Donations may be made to the above Kingdom Hall.

Interment will be at a later date at the Cape Canaveral National Veterans Cemetery in Mims, Florida.

“ I just saw this while learning also of the passing of the O'Herns - along with Vinnie and Ann, all people who have helped Jim and I on our spiritual journey through the years. We are saddened to learn of Vinnie's passing and offers prayers for the family's comfort especially Ann and that dear granddaughter who so loved to "hear" my guitar playing and Jim's deep bass voice singing. Some memories are forever...God bless you, Ann. Thank you for helping us 35 years ago!!
