“ Robby,
I still think of you often, and I wish life had been easier for you. You had such a good heart, and I know you carried a lot on your shoulders. I wish you could have found the peace and joys that life had to offer, and that things could have been different. You are missed, and I hope you've found the rest and freedom that eluded you in this world. Rest well, dear brother.-Russ

“ Thoughts and prayers for Rob's family and friends, esp his children which he loved more than life. He was a great friend and I will miss him very much. His smile would light up the room and his positive outlook on life was refreshing and sincere. I will miss our talks, my surprise Frappes, our political texts, those sweet hugs, but most of all i will miss hearing about how great his kids are.... i have always had so much respect for him as a father. I hope his kids know that they were his life. He lived life with such purpose, was very smart, and had such a pure heart. I will miss seeing him with that big straw hat and hearing those funny lil giggles. Rest in paradise my special friend.

“ My thoughts and prayers to Robbie's beloved family, dear friends, and animal companion, my heart is heavy after learning of his passing. I've known Rob for over 20 years as he used to live on my street, knew all the children when they were just babies, he planted a special tree that he gave to me in my front yard, he also restored my mom's Monte Carlo when she passed away 16+ years ago, I gave it to him to do so as said he had always wanted to that with a car, he did a beautiful job! Always sweet & respectful & always ready for a big hug, I will truly miss his winning smile & those big hugs!
